The river Tiber which knew the greatness of the-- --old Roman Empire takes on its broad bosom the flying heroes of--
--the new Rome. General Balbo leaps ashore to greet Mussolini and his wildly welcoming countrymen.

The grandeur of Rome is reborn as the procession escorting the now famous air-squadron crews--

--passes under the arch erected to the Emperor Constantine.
(EFFECTS - 3 SHOTS).

In the amphitheatre of the Emperor Diocletian, the Duce tells how Italian--

--air prowess has thrilled the world and set new standards of airachievement.

After a speech pregnant with emotional patriotic power,--

--Signor Mussolini ~~greeted~~^{greets} General Balbo Italy's first Air Marshal and embraces him. The-- --acclamation of Balbo and his men --

--baffles description which is colossal. Overwhelming !
The nation's hero is Air-Marshel Balbo !
