BOYS GOLF - - Young Scotland beats Young
England in international match at Carneustie.

-Exclusive Pictures-

Picture:-

English boys of all lengths, widths and thicknesses--

--play a likewise varied assortment of Scottish boys at golf.

Iain McDonald, Scotland's Captain, drives off the first tee.

--and the gallery crowd follows them both.

McDonald plays from a burn bank.

Langley, England, putts - - worthy of Hagan.

Roger, of Scotland, drives - - The boys' golf championship match never--

-- lack enthusiasm. There's Salmon, England, driving.

The Scottish superiority seems to be evident.

More, Scotland, gets well out of a ticklish bunker.

Parker, England, raises a sand-storm, but also gets clear,--

--and holes out nicely. But Scotland wins !!
