This is the way boys of the Reforestation Camps rush to--

--greet President Roosevelt, when he pays them a surprise visit - - down in Old--

--Virginia. This work is one of the President's ways--

--of absorbing unemployed--

--young men into usefulness. America's strong man--

--is noted for his informality, and he helps himself, too--

--as well as his country ! And after a friendly meal,--

--a friendly chat !
