

REDSKINS RACE - - Braves of Indian tribes compete in canoes fashioned after war-craft of olden times.

-Couperville.U.S.A.-

Picture:-

Indian braves again take to their war canoes, but not for war, this time ! Crews from-- --eight Redskin tribes are competing for the--

--canoe championship. These 'Redmen' are great athletes.
They are doing--

--eighty strokes to the minute now, and every stroke like the kick--

--of a horse. A beautiful picture they make--

--as they round the mark-boat. Their canoes are-- --the old originals hollowed out from single tree-trunks.

The Swinecreek Indians are favourites, and they-- --are going to win. Their warrior brothers--

--are betting their scalps to an old moccasin that they will win ! And they do !

There will be great 'doings' in the wigwams to-night.
