

TINY TOTS' PARADE -- Pageant
of childhood an attractive feature of Southend's week of carnival.

Picture:-

The cradle is ruling the world at Southend to-day.
Tiny tots on parade. It's their day.
The judging for various prizes is being--
--undertaken by doctors and nurses. Very appropriate !
If they can't judge a good brand in tiny tots,--
--when they see them, who can ? Norman Harris--
--in a model 'Seafarer' gets-- --first prize. An Empire Fruit pram by a pair of twins gets another--
--first. Somebody has collected ten sets of-- --twins by the way. One pair short for a complete footer match.

(APPLAUSE).

And aren't the kids pleased ? All smiles !
Sorry ! She's lost her mummy, or her dummy.
It's a crying shame. The show is practically over.
Mothers are sorting out--
--the babies, especially the twins. No mixed-doubles here.
