

2295751

A LITTLE AFFAIR OF WAR - -

Exclusive pictures of a thrilling "international" incident on the high seas.

-Scarborough-

Picture.:-

Another international incident ! The luxury liner 'Orontes' proceeding to Oseosh, Wis,--

--U.S. is challenged by a submarine of unknown nationality. She is ordered--

--to stand to. The Scots Captain refuses, and keeps on--

--proceeding. The submarine prepares to fire--

--at the unarmed passenger ship when His Majesty's Renown appears. Our war-ship--

--opens fire on the undersea foe. (EFFECTS).

The crowd cheers the rescuers and hisses the villains. (EFFECTS).

The 'submarine' is 'sinking'.

Then up comes the enemy cruiser 'Sedlitz' looking for the 'Renown'.

The ring-side - - sea-side - - gets even more excited.

"Renown" is sighted and a sedlitz powder is fired. 'Renown' replies and 'Sedlitz' runs for home.

And all that at Peasholme Lake, Scarborough.
A model battle !