

2-108951

STORM HAVOC - - Righty-miles-an-hour hurricane sweeps the Atlantic seaboard of America, causing incalculable damage.

-Virginia-

---

Picture:-

The flag storm warnings are up.

Ships at sea begin to scurry--

--towards the nearest port before the gale breaks. A--

--few hours after the hurricane batters the coast-line with--

--relentless force. From Norfolk to Atlantic City, the sea--

--ravages the land. Even the famous water-front promenades break up--

--before the unparalleled onslaught.

(EFFECTS - 5 SHOTS).

The Board Walk at Seabright, the well-known coast--

--resort is wrecked.

(Prom) Beach-bungalow towns are laid flat.

(EFFECTS).

Hundreds of coast ships are tossed up on the shore and smashed--

--beyond repair. The havoc is everywhere, and--

--the damage done is frightful,