

131813

ROYAL BRAEMAR - - The King and Queen attend
the greatest sporting gathering of the Highlands.

-Scotland-

& _____

Picture:-

The Braemar Gathering ! The skirl of the pibrochs--
--again echoes from hill to hill, as the clansmen march to the games.

The procession is headed by the Balmoral Highlanders led by the King's Piper.

Several thousand cars have brought many of the thirty thousand people who greet their Majesties the--

--King and Queen as they enter the Princess Royal Park.

The first to leave the Royal carriage is the Duke of York.

The King follows, and is welcomed by Lord and Lady Aberdeen, and by Colonel Farquharson of Invercauld.

(KFFETS - 4 SHOTS).

Scotland's traditional he-man games take the field.
Throwing the hammer !

Tossing the caber||| It takes a Highlander to do this ! A Pole jumping contest is included, and Highland Wrestling at the special request of His Majesty the King.

After a long stay in the brilliant sunshine, the King and--

--Queen and the Royal Party leave for Balmoral.