

5-218A51

ROAD RACING THRILLS -- America's leading drivers in exciting 200-miles race on the roads of Elgin.

-Illinois.U.S.A.-

Picture.:-

The drivers in this race take all sorts of chances. ...
It's a wonder they live to-- --tell the tale. ... At the hairpin turns the limits of the--

--track are piled with bundles of hay, as protection for the -- OH !

He "hit the hay"--

--all right; but he's not going to sleep ! ... He's "backing himself for a place" at least ! ... He's got some nerve !

(Wait for skid) ... You're liable to do that if-- --you try 'cornering' at something over seventy ! ... It's not easy to avoid running into the wall of hay--

--when going "all out" to get to--

--the finishing post,--

--first out of about -- OW -- Right through the hay stack ---- but no-one's hurt, thank-- --goodness. ... Keep back there ? Why certainly !

He's going back into the race, too ! You'd think he's travelled the straight road all his life !

Oh yes, there is a finish ! And Phil Shafer makes it--

--in two hours 19 minutes. ... Good time for 203 miles !