YOUNG "SPORTS" OF OUR NAVY - -

Boys of the training ship Warspite become landmen for a day - - the occasion of their annual sports.

-Grays, Essex-

---

Picture.:-

It's the rule that all boys of the training ship 'WARSPITE' take part in the sack-race. They don't all finish, but they're all good starters, anyway.

Rain makes the pillow-fighting contest a stunning sport. Yes, - - a--

--seek on the ear (excuse me !) with a rain-soaked pillow is - - well, there you are !

This is the boys' annual sports meeting being held at Grays, Essex,--

--and being sailor lads, they're very hearty about it all. I suppose the--

--bosun ought to cry "Heave ho, my hearties !"--

--but as far as I can see there's no bosun in sight. He's--

--probably in the wet canteen. A chariot race between teams of the--

--foe'sle, foretop, maintop, and quarter-deck. That's nautical enough for anybody !

This is usually a wet job. Oh ! Good shot !

Another very good poke. He's escaped--

--a drenching. Missed it ! A shower bath for him !

All bright and brand new again ! Marching off to receive prizes--

--distributed by Lady Devitt, wife of the Society's Vice-President Tea will be served in the Marquee.
