THE GOVERNOR'S CUP - - Big crowd sees the favourites beaten in thrilling race for coveted trophy at Ootacamund.

Picture:- Despite pessimistic reports, life in India - - Madras anyway - - seems to be about the--

--same. Sir George Stanley, Governor of Madras, and Lady Beatrice Stanley--

--watch the start of the race for the Governor's Cup.
"Torford" and "Daryasager"--

--are favourites. There's the Governor himself following the horses.

They're now coming up the straight. Both the favourites are well behind and "Sans Avis" is lengths ahead.

"Sans Avis" is centering home, with miles, - - well yards, to spare. (PAUSE). An easy win for a comparative outsider. (EFFECTS).

The winner is owned by Mrs. Rosario.
Later she will receive the Cup from the Governor himself. "Sans Avis" is not 'without notice' now !
