

25281

MAJESTY OF THE LAW - H.M. Judges leave Westminster Abbey in dignified procession on the occasion of the re-opening of the Law Courts after the long vacation.

LONDON.

Picture. The Long Vacation is over, and His Majesty's judges ~~return~~ come back to work. The Lord Councillor, Lord Sankey, heads the procession. Lord Hewitt, Lord Chief Justice, follows and he is followed by apparently hundreds of others. Lord Merryvale, Divorce Court President, is absent this time. Having just retired, Sir Frank Boyd Merriman is his successor. The wigs and the gowns lend an air of great dignity to the procession. The pup doesn't seem very impressed. In a few minutes they will be seated at the Law Courts dispensing the Island's traditional justice. Crowds watch from behind bars, and a lot of others behind bars think about them. They are men of few words but their sentences run on for years.