

BOUNTAINS OF WINE

2528951

Picture:- In this town of Marino it would be difficult to find an Italian indoors to-day.

The reason is that - - the streets are flowing with - - not milk and honey - - but with good--

--red wine. It is actually flowing from the public--

--fountains too. This extraordinary and beautifully liquid state of affairs is the Italian way of celebrating the Grape Harvest.

You bring your own mug and drink your fill. Gendarmes are--

--in attendance to keep the peace and remove anyone--

--who can't remove himself. Everybody makes speeches to--

--which nobody listens; the principal speech being "Good Harvest, man ! Have--

--another. No, have one with me ! No, have one with me !

(EFFECTS TO END).
