THE GOSBARKWICH STAKES.

Picture.:- Newmarket looks very like Newmarket again.
It's blowing a--

--gale, so there's a chance to lose your--

--hat, as well as your bank overdraft. The horses are coming out. 33 starters !

All very fine sleek chancy looking horses. "Chelmarsh"

--looks good. "Dick Turpin" has Gordon Richards up. Freddie Fox is riding "Seminole", not "Sandals" which he was-- --expected to ride. Well, thirty-two of these runners must lose,--

--but this prince of tipsters will tell you which will win !

Perhaps ! They're now jockeying for the start.

The gale makes them rather restless. They're not up yet, but nearly ! Yes, they're off ! A nice start, and all running clear ! (PAUSE).

"Guiscard" is the hot--

--favourite and has been heavily backed at short prices.
They're well out on the heath now, and the line is not so much thirty-three broad, as thirty-three long. "Guiscard" is falling back - - can't see Gordon Richards among the first half-dozen - - "Ximenes", "Seminole", "Statesman" are going well - - "Loose Strife" is striving to beat his Newbury penalty. Richards on "Dick Turpin" is well back in the string. Stand and Deliver is no motto for a racehorse.

"Roi de Paris" is among the first--

--four. "Seminole" is in front, - - "Chelmarsh", "Loose Strife" Backers of--

--the favourites are counting their small change. Here's the finish ! "Seminole" is bound to win, and has,--

--with "Loose Strife", and "Roi de Paris" second and third. A-- --good race. There's Fox on "Seminole". Bravo Freddie. But the real winner is the bookmaker.
