

NEWS IN BRIEF.

131888P21
131888P1
131888P1

- (1). Picture:- Anyone seen this man ? It's Colonel Lindbergh, and-- -- he's lost in London. There's his wife, and she's lost, too !
Hundreds of news-hounds have searched--
--for them, but the Lindy's remain--
--in hiding. Well, we salute their courage and modesty !
- (2). Picture:- A spring-cleaning during the winter ! Starting this month, eight--
--large liners are to be overhauled, washed, and brushed-up.
The "Majestic", the world's largest, is one of them ! She's a top liner !
-
- (3). Picture:- A dark woman may come into your life. She will--
--make sweeping changes in your home. It may be Mrs. Nelson.
Her husband fell--
--ill. She took over his job, and does dirty work with a clean conscience.
-
- (4). Picture:- An engine wearing an old school-tie. It's named after Brighton College. The boys inspect--
--the School's new ponderous pet, intimating their approval in--
--the usual way.. It's an engine rag ! What ?
-
- (5). Picture:- We congratulate the Prime Minister. He had a birthday a few days ago. Sixty-seven, not-- --out, and no general election in sight - - for which, we,
and he, should be thankful ! Nuff said !
-