CIVIL WAR IN CUBA.

Picture.:- (EFFECTS - 2 SHOTS)

This is a real war, but-- --not a European one. Havana's great--
--Hotel Nacional has been attacked--
--by the Cuban Army.

(BANG).

The building is occupied by--
--officers who have refused to give in to the new-- --Government. Artillery, including French--
--75's cover the--
--attacking troops. It is too--
--hot for the defenders and they are waving the white flag at last.

This means a great victory for the People's Army, and lots of work for bricklayers' boys--
--and plumbers'mates.

Civilians and soldiers--
--are now busy looting the place. Meanwhile, America--
--ships a battalion of Marines for a cruise. They don't know-- --where they're bound, but by the tin--
--hats they guess it's to--
--"play upon the rumba down in Cuba."
