UP FROM THE FARM.

Picture.:-

Mustn't interrupt this girl ! Her reputation as a butter-maker is at stake.

It's the Agricultural Hall, and she's the cream of the show. I'm--

--only stopping the butter-milk splashes. Ah ! A hair on the head--

--is worth two in the butter. Two minutes work. Pretty, and good !

Now we come to cows. Jersey cows. Although--

--not one wears a jersey. I have noticed it ! This is a prize--

--winner. Well bred, and educated at a very good school.

Shorthorns next ! With very short horns. Easy to handle. Seldom settles--

--arguments with a toss-up. Sometimes nervous.

This one's breath is coming in short pants. Proves my point !

And, of course the goats. Popular exhibit ! Sometimes--

--called the poor man's milker. Other times called something quite different ! They have very-- --little moral sense. Steal their neighbour's food. Ah ! He's only pulling his ear, but that will learn him !
