

A FISH TALE.

Picture.:-

An angler's dream after a--

--day's fishing without a bite. Or alternatively, an angler's lie--

--after a similar experience. One thousand--

--trout here. They have just been brought from--

--Fish Farm, Haslemere, to stock Sedlescombe Reservoir to encourage anglers to fish in. Well, if that-- --doesn't encourage them, nothing will ! There's--

--the evidence that there are really fish to swallow--

--the right sort of worm on the right sort of hook, if it's dropped--

--in by the right sort of angler.

And if the weather's right, one should have the right sort of catch to take home !
