"MARCH ON ROME."

Picture.

Another march on Rome ! The Fascists celebrate the 12th anniversary of--

--the "Bloodless Revolution". In their thousands the super-patriotic blackshirts, headed by--

--their King Victor Emanuel III, pass under--

--the arch of Constantine which is dedicated to the triumphant--

--revolutionists. Twenty-thousand of these officers and men were earlier in the day presented with the Blue Ribbon--

--for Valour. The Blue Ribbon is a highly esteemed Italian decoration, and the King himself was responsible for the gift--

--being made. This crowd is gathered to hear Signor Mussolini--

--speak from the Piazza Venezia. Thousands again--

--show how passionately the spirit of nationalism moves the Italian people.
