

2544451
2544451
2544451

NEWS IN BRIEF.

Picture:- Sixty years ago Sir James Barrie was-- --a shy student at Edinburgh University. To-day he is its Chancellor, wishing his Alma Mater many happy returns of-- --her 350th anniversary. He is to speak--
 --at to-day's capping ceremony. His 'Peter Pan' speeches usually cap anything anyway.

Picture:-

There are female watchers over the Bank of England who get--
 --no pay, and are on duty day and night.
 They are ladies of solid character who make no advances--
 --to anyone. In fact, like my-- --bank manager when an overdraft is suggested, they have got hearts of stone.

Picture:- And talking of money, President Roosevelt decides to buy gold. If the other-- --nations decide to sell, I say if, Mr. Roosevelt should-- rechristen America Gold's own country.