NEWS IN BRIEF.

(1). America's famous night club queen is dead. Her beautiful dance-club hostesses were the-- --sensation of New York, and all big American cities. She lived a crowded, courageous, happy-go-lucky existence. She laughed through life, fought bravely against illness, and died smiling.

Ever an active worker for the people's good, the Princess Royal only daughter of King--

--George is at last compelled to rest. Many engagements have been cancelled, and--

--the Princess has now been operated upon for appendicitis. Sir Stanley Hewitt, Surgeon--

--Apothecary to the King has issued a report that the Royal patient is doing well.

Signor Mussolini is now Italy's Premier, Foreign Minister, War--

--Minister, Air Minister, Minister for the Interior. In fact, Italy's--

--Poobah. General Balbo, Italy's other national hero has been appointed to the Governorship of a nice, warm, desert colony, in Africa. Take warning,--

Too much success is as bad as failure.
