

SOCIETY WEDDING.

Picture:- A november wedding ! But happy is the bride that the-- --sun shines on may still be quoted. St. Margaret's is-- --bathed in a soft sunlit atmosphere, as Lord Long and--

--Miss Laura Charteris, now Lady Long, leave the Church
after their wedding.

(O.S.). The bride is--

--wearing a white satin dress, with a long train of the same material falling from the-- --shoulders. Golden lilies and orange blossoms are resting on her hair, and her bouquet is of madonna lilies.

(R.E.J.). She looks quite happy about it all.

(O.S.). So does Lord Long.

(R.E.J.). Sorry ! So does Lord Long. The crowd is very interested in the bridesmaids and pages. You--

--had better say what they are wearing too.

(O.S.). The general scheme is ivory and peacock blue in velvet and tulle.

(R.E.J.). Now let's wish--

--them good luck and-- (Both together). Happy days !
