(1). Picture.:- Manchester's twenty-thousandth house for working-class people is--
--completed. Twenty-thousand families now have a--
--garden in the suburbs instead of a window box in the slums. Corporation rents--
--are low, but corporation 'Bus fares are not. It's heads I win ! Tails you Lose !

(2). Picture.:- Towards the nothingness of space is the newest--
--sensation in travel. First Professor Piccard, of Belgium !
His wonderful record was beaten--
--by Russia, and now Lieutenant-Commander Settle of America--
--has done his best to discover what nothingness is. The average man knows it already

(3). Picture.:- Secret roads are not the monopoly of the Middle Ages, for here is one. It joins up--
--two traffic roads at Constitution Hill, and it may be used by no-one except--
--the King and his household. If you don't believe it's true, ask a policeman !

(4). Picture. Dayton Police are adopting the "iron--
--claw beneath the cotton glove." The claw shuts like--
--a steel trap when the handle is turned.
So when there's twisting needed, the cops--
--will twist. A useful gadget to close up--
--any argument. It's inventor is a policeman.
His motto must be "First catch your criminal".
