

(CONT).

140035-C
140036-C
140037-C

(4)

Picture:- Changed circumstances cause this coalman to leave the old homestead--

--for a very much better one - - a--

--nice, clean one. No coal dust here. Gold dust --

--has worked a miracle ! He's won the--

--big prize in the second French Sweepstake Lottery.

Went to bed worth a few tons of coal --

--and woke up worth a few tons of money.

(5).

Picture:- The British Merchant Navy is not so happy--

--as it was, or as it ought to be.

Twelve-thousand officers are sending a petition--
--to Parliament. Admiral Philip Nelson-Ward, M.V.O., is--

--one of the petitioners. As the British--

--sailorman seldom grumbles without good cause,--

--let's wish the petition luck on its political voyage.

(6).

Picture:- A German gun-boat visits the Thames on a peaceful mission. It's Commander--

--is co-operating with the English Fisheries Protection--

--authorities. The ship carries suitable surprise packets for fishing pirates, which we hope--

--will not be delivered without very good cause.
