DOWN BY THE SEA.

Picture.:-

On the coldest day this year, Hastings girls cry 'On to the Baths'. They try not to look cold,--

--but - - I don't know. Anyway this should warm them up, and warn off--

--any fresh boy friends. For the winter the Baths are bearded over.

Otherwise the instructor's order to fall in might lead to a freezing 'wash-out'.

What a neck some girls have got !

Even in the winter there's no lack of attractions at Hastings.
