WORLD FLYWEIGHT
CHAMPIONSHIP.

Boxers of quality are keeping busy. Jackie Brown, the world's flyweight champion, has accepted Ginger Foran's challenge to the-- --title. If Jackie fails to uphold his claim, he will lose three flyweight championships -- the world's, the European,--

--and the British. Jackie Brown's feet are as famous as-- --his hands, and if both work together as perfectly as-- --they usually do, Ginger Foran will have his work cut out. The match is-- --rousing the greatest enthusiasm in Manchester and district. The last messages from the training camps are--

--(1). Brown is confident of winning. (2). Foran is confident of winning, so it seems like stalemate already.
