

"FUR AND FEATHERS".

Picture. :-

Prince George visits Derby. The occasion is the Railway men's "Fur & Feather" Show, which His Royal Highness has consented to declare open. He is received by Sir Josiah Stamp and Lady Stamp, and others I could see better if - - would you please - - thank you, sir ! This is chiefly an exhibition of pets owned and bred by railway employees. Cats, dogs, guinea-pigs .(Pick 'em up, --

--by their tails, and their eyes drop out). Poultry, pigeons - - you know the sort of thing !

There's a lovely prize-winning cock. A fine bird.

And another, looking round for his harem.

Hundreds of fluffy rabbits take their place on the judges' bench.

And there's the largest pigeon in England - - excepting, of course, those plucked by confidence men.
