(April).

Picture.:-

Again nature and man faced each other in storm, and nature won.

The "AKRON", dreadnought of the air was reduced to wreckage by one lightning--

--flash from the heavens, and hurled seventy-seven people to their doom. More lucky were those--

--over whose heads the threat of the death penalty--

--hung for weeks. The release and arrival home of Thornton, MacDonald and--

--Go was a triumph for British diplomacy and British prestige.

And the Cup Final ! Manchester City versus Everton ! For one day and night Lancashire took possession--

--of London. (EFFECTS). And the toffee town took the Coop !

(May).

The high spot of the Merry month of May. Epsom Downs ! And the great national classic--

--race, the Derby ! (EFFECT). Lord Derby's "Hyperion" wins, and we lose !

(June).

Picture.:- It was in this appropriate month of June that Mr. Ramsay MacDonald, with His Majesty's approval--

--tried to arrange a marriage between politics and finance.

Between little Miss Self Interest and Major General Good. It would have been--

--a great match, but I'm afraid the marriage will not take place.

(June).

Picture.:- June again sees His Majesty driving in state to his palace, with a romantic guest, King Feisal of Irak, ruler of the country of the Arabian Nights Tales. A man who attained kingship by his personal talents for government.
