

(July).

Picture.:- July saw a new hope of ten year's peace. Herr Von--

--Hassel, Germany, signs the Four--

--Power Pact. Monsieur Jouvenal, France,--

--Sir Ronald Graham, signs for Britain;

Signor Mussolini, whose idea it is, signs for Italy.

A bright rift in a dark political sky.

Picture.:- Jim and Amy Mollison, the people's air idols--

--start their first man-and-wife flight to America.

The gallant Seafarer disappears into the blue, and--

--crashes within sight of the objective, --

--New York. Plucky Jim and Amy--

--were both injured, but not seriously. Bad luck, and good luck.

(August). Picture.:- Italy made air history in August. The first Air Armada--

--crossed and re-crossed the Atlantic. A spectacular--

--feat of great importance. The courageous flight--

--leader General Balbo was rightly acclaimed when he-- --returned from this epoch making air adventure. An adventure which gives a foretaste of--

--the future of aerial possibilities, peaceful or dreadful.
