

FOILED AGAIN.

Picture:- These German girls are being trained in the way they should grow - - slim, graceful, and supple.

NATURAL SOUND.

Fencing is a marvellous exercise for body and mind. A second's hesitation means defeat. A beautiful lunge, and an excellent recovery. There's another ! It's more-- --difficult than it--

--looks. The art of fence is--

--a skilled pastime, demanding intelligence and finesse. If an unwanted male tries any funny fencing with these frauleins, they will find themselves foiled.
