

2-251041

THEIR "NEW YEAR" TREAT.
FEAST FOR AGED HORSES.
EXTRA HIT BITS WELCOMED.
-Cricklewood-

Picture:-

Seventy-eight old horses are just beginning to get excited. They know their New Year's party is--

--just about to commence. Apples and carrots in--

--hundreds, and there goes the dinner bell, rung by the oldest--

--inhabitant - - "Grey Boy", a war horse who has--

--done his bit, and is now honourably retired.

It's quite correct here to say "Have a--

--bucketful, old boy?" This is the Horses' Home's 38th New Year's party, and--

--here's Freddie Fox feeding an old pensioner, a railway horse that was. Freddie talks the language they know.

The old things seem to look forward to the visitors' company. Maybe they know it's the only--

--thing left them before the "last round up",