SIR JOHN SIMON

, IN ROME.

FOREIGN SECRETARY'S VISIT.
IMPORTANT DISCUSSIONS.

-Italy-

Picture:-

The machine which brings Sir John Simon to Rome--

--arrives from Capri. The object of the British Foreign Secretary's--

--visit is to have a heart-to-heart talk--

--with the Italian Premier. Signor Mussolini, by the way, is not found by the camera on this occasion. The reason--

--being that he is not here. Sir John and Lady Simon are greeted with the usual formalities by large numbers of officials. Sir John has great hopes of finding-- --a common denominator which will solve the difficulties of the disarmament--

--question. World peace is involved, and the income tax. We wish him success !
