

A "STRIKING" MATCH.

"ALL IN" WRESTLING.
CHAMPION DEFENDS TITLE.

-New York-

-T-

Picture. :- A spot of all-in wrestling--

--in case the party is getting dull.

Jim Browning no sooner picks up a friend than he drops him. I call that letting a man down badly. Ray Steele,--of-- --California, insisted on this bout. Otherwise he seems to be an intelligent--

--fellow. Browning punishes him like that!

While the ref keeps his--

--distance. Down again! What a leg-pull! Browning, the champion, is getting--

--a dose of his own medicine, and it hurts! Now--

--Browning is giving a demonstration of his famous wind-mill twist.

Even the referee--

--is getting anxious. Steele is down. Beaten by these terrible leg-scissors, and Browning retains his title,--which doesn't worry me a scrap.
