COMPLETE CRESTA RUN.
ALL-THE-WAY THRILLS.

Picture.:-

A start from the famous Cresta--

--Run top. This is the-- --fastest and most dangerous part. It was opened--

--only a few days ago, but since then--

--there has been a constant flashing past of bob-sleighs.
In case--

--there are any enthusiasts listening, I had better call them by their official name of skeletons. At times--

--the gradient is one in two. Here is one home after having safely negotiated--

--the passage. Not everybody is as lucky as--

--that in this stomach flattening sport. It's quite easy--

--to lose the skeletons and finish--

--the run on Little Mary.

The record time for the run is held by--

--Jack Heaton who--

--covered the distance in 58-seconds. And even so ended up in one complete piece.
