THE GOLD RUSH.

25,000,000 WORTH COMES BY AIR.
TREASURE FLEET ARRIVES.

-Croydon-

Picture.:-

Treasure carrying aeroplanes. Billions in bullion are dropping into--

--Croydon almost hourly. This is a Dutch 'plane.
Here is--

--a French one unloading its sealed--

--boxes of bar gold. Gambling in gold is the economic depression's--

--new sport. Fortunes made out of misfortunes !

A British 'plane lands with yet more gold for shipment to--

--America. Roosevelt's economic efforts are making fortunes--

--for foreign speculators. A golden opportunity for opportunists. I think it's - - - - - !!
