

ARMY "ON THE RUN"

YOUNG SOLDIERS' RACE
FOUR-HUNDRED STARTERS.
-Aldershot-

Picture:-

Young soldiers of the Aldershot Command take their places in the front line and prepare to run. Wait for it! They're so eager to get on with the advance that they can't stay put. There they go again! Talk about enthusiasm. It's their first cross-country race, and they're really off now! Twenty-two teams are competing over a distance of $4\frac{1}{2}$ miles, and at the end of the show one team will carry off the prized shield and a lot of other teams won't.

The N.G.'s Effort. Fast but no Use. The winners are the 1st Oxford and Bucks Light Infantry and to them General Sir Francis Gathorne-Hardy presents the much run-after trophy. Their next race is over a short course home to get changed.
