NEWS IN BRIEF

- (1) Picture Thirty new motor-cars were burnt out when this garage at Hull caught fire. Another fifty were saved by being driven out while the fire was actually raging. Several came out already blazing and were extinguished, by hose play outside the building. A rough estimate of the damage is fifty-thousand pounds and quite rough enough.
- (2) Picture: This item of news-in-brief is certainly news to me and in this case brevity seems the soul of fit. A suppose these girls would be called striplings. The special corset is for sports wear when athletic girls are quite frequently caught bending. Very durable. They can't be worn out!
- (3) Picture: At the Guards' Chapel, Miss Penelope Portman becomes Mrs. Clive. The bridegroom is Captain Archer Clive is a guards-officers, sone of Lieutenant General Sir Sydney and Lady Clive. The loveliness of the bride is enhanced by the bridal gown of white more and gold thread.
