

RECORD HERRING CATCHES

BEST FOR MANY YEARS
SCOTTISH FISHERMEN HAPPY.

-Newhaven-

Picture:-

For four years Newhaven has been off the herring shoals' visiting list, but this year they have called again. The net value of this visit has caused lots of excitement. One old Scots skipper was so happy that he treated all his crew to free drinks. The herrings are coming ashore in hundreds. More than three-thousand crans have been sold in nine day. Continental buyers are bidding and the prices are good. For the time being the fishing banks of the Firth ~~of~~ of Forth are a real Tom Tiddlers' ground. Cats have again added fish to their-menu. When heads are thrown their tails go up. New-haven is happy! Wharfs are smelling. Wives are smiling and the herrings are getting pickled.

---oOo---