NEWS IN BRIEF.

(1). Picture.:- Every year Bridlington commemorates a gallant company of mariners who perished--
--in a fearful gale which swept the town in 1871. Many ships--
--failed to make the harbour. Many--
--brave lives were lost. The Mayor lays a commemorative wreath on the memorial--
--erected to their memory. Today Bridlington looks--
--a picture of peaceful beauty. Yet not far from this scene - -

(2). Picture.:- A fierce North-Westerly gale ravaged the coast only--
--a few days ago. It took off a house--
--roof, and rendered this family homeless. Later tons of masonry--
--crashed through the open roof into the bedroom.
The occupants had remarkable--
--escapes. Mrs. Smith, the lady of the-- --house crawled under the bed and was^{un}injured.
