ICE BOUND ISLAND.

RELIEVED BY COASTGUARDS.
SAVED FROM STARVATION.

-U.S.A.

Picture:- This ship is answering an S.O.S. Beaver--
--Island, Lake Michigan has been ice-bound-- --for many weeks. Supplies of food have run short, so the hungry--
--people set the radio crackling, and this ship is the-- --answer. The coast-guard cutter Escanaba--
--is loaded with sugar and spice and all-- --things nice. It has been a heavy job cutting through the ice,--
--but she is there at last unloading enough food and cattle fodder--
--to keep the Island going until--
--the Spring. The stores are-- --breached as soon as unloaded.
But the first to find--
--food and fill up are the famished--
--horses. Dumb animals are not so dumb.
