RACING ON THE RIVIERA.

CLASSIC 'CHASE AT CANNES.
A POPULAR WIN.

-France-

Picture.:-

The Aspect of Southern France - - within sight of the-- --blue Mediterranean. Elegance and fashion-- --gather to see the Cannes Grand Prix. Steeple-chasing is as popular in France as it is in England. The jumps are much easier I notice! This course, the Hippodrome of Mandelieu, is nothing like Aintree for casualties. The jumpers seem to take the fences in their stride without effort.

That kiddie has gone 'nap' --

--on something. Picked a winner with a safety-pin, I think. 'TAPEUR' is backed short as the-- --likeliest thing. Naudot, his jockey is-- --a sort of--

--French Gordon Richards. Yes, 'TAPEUR' has passed the lot, and wins, with quite a bit in hand. And did--

--this girl back it? She's lucky at the jumps.
