(1). Picture.:- Primo Carnera, the world's heavyweight champion has started training for the coming--

--battle at Miami Beach, to defend his title. The Italian--

--overweight - - sorry, heavyweight - - says it will be a --

--push-over. But Tommie Loughran, his opponent, has his own ideas--

--about that. He says the big ones--

--are only a bit harder to push over. That's all!

(2). Picture.:- His Majesty the King is to visit Manchester--

--in July to open the wonderful new library, so a--

--spot of spring-cleaning for the summer is--

--on. In their cradles these men feel quite at home.

Oh ! Quite at--

--home ! Yes, it feels rather like rain ! But Eh ! Well, it's lucky they say !

(3). Picture.:- Becher's Brook ! The grave of many punters' hopes.

Valentine's Brook. These jumps will be alive with--

--horses for a few hectic minutes on March 23rd. That's the date of the famous GRAND NATIONAL. I believe there's also an--

--Irish Sweepstake in connection with this classic race, but--

--as it is an entirely illegal affair, as far as Britain is concerned, I won't mention it !
