

NEWS IN BRIEF.

- (1) Picture:- The Dandy Ninth go to church! Of course, they--
--often do, but this is a special occasion. The Seventh Ninth--
--Royal Scots are attending a service at St. Giles--
--Cathedral, Edinburgh to commemorate a memorable--
--Landing of the Battalion in France, 1915--
--and to remember their comrades who made the great sacrifice.

Finish with BAGPIPES.

- (2) Picture:- England has skated to victory. Miss Megan Taylor
as graceful a girl who ever swung--

--a pretty leg, has won the International Women's Figure Skating Contest at Stockholm. Her winning performance was received with unstinted applause--

--by over twenty thousand--

--people. Yes, its O.K. with me Megan !

- (3) Picture:- A gallery of gully-men for the Oxford Boat on March the 17th.

G.A. Ellisen, bow and R.W.G. Heldsworth, stroke.

P. Hegg is third and J.M. Couchman second position.

G.F.F. Thomson rows seventh and J.H. Lascelles sixth.

C.S. Reid is spare man and A.V. Sutcliffe is Number Four.

C.G.F. Bryan is cox and P.R.S. Banks is Number five.

Bryan thinks that Oxford will be first -- or second.
