

2-195041

ARMY'S RECRUITING
DRIVE

SPECTACULAR APPEAL FOR MEN.
SCOTS GREYS' MARCH.

-Edinburgh-

Picture:- Throughout the Lowland area of Scotland, a recruiting drive is in--

--progress. Headed by their mounted band, the Royal Scots Greys make a spectacular march through Edinburgh. Turning into--

--St. Andrew's Square Scotland's crack regiment takes a--

--rest. Horses' rations are increased by many a lump--

--of sugar from civilians who pause before the regimental colours. This is Scotland's one--

--and only Cavalry unit, and there's usually considerable competition to fill vacant places.

Major J.H. Dudgeon, M.C. is in command. Not for five years has--

--Edinburgh seen the famous Greys parading. Many a--

--youth watches and pines to take the King's shilling "just for a ribbon to wear in his coat".