CARNIVAL TIME
IN U.S.A.

TORCHLIGHT PARADE.
HIGH KINKS AT NIGHT.

-Louisiana-

Picture.:-

Louisiana, way down where the cotton grows, makes-- --a day of it. With the rest of America trying to make both ends meet this-- --show looks pretty lavish. In fact it's so good that the-- --Carnival Queen is besieged by-- --hundreds of thousands of visitors from all over the country--
 --who come to take part in the-- --whoopie. A lot of it is Chinese to me,--
 --but the Covered Waggon is an easy guess. No wonder that old snail made the West wild.
