

NEWS IN BRIEF.

- (1). Picture.:- Four-hundred pilgrims make their way to Victoria--
--Station en route for the Vatican, Rome.
They go from the Roman Catholic diocese of Southwark at--
--the invitation of His Holiness the Pope.
Dr.P. Amigo, Bishop of Southwark, is leading--
--this pilgrimage to the Holy City of the Seven Hills.
- (2). Picture.:- The yacht 'UVIRA' limps into Virginia--
--Harbour after being badly storm tossed. Thirty-six amateur explorers were--
--aboard, including Miss Peggy House, and Mrs. Jackson-Darling.
Captain Jackson Darling was leader of the expedition--
--which is now postponed. One of the crew was-- --washed overboard, and the yacht is badly battered.
- (3). Picture.:- One new boat in a hurry. That was the surprise--
--order issued by Brigadier-General Gibbon, the Oxford--
--coach. Rumour says that a wider and deeper boat--
--is necessary to carry the extra weight in this year's--
--crew. The builders will complete it in 5½-days, a record.
The crew--
--hopes to break a record too.
- (4). Picture.:- The Portsmouth footer team are to meet Leicester
City at Birmingham in the semi-finals. Their trainer, Jack Warner, decides to--
--take them into the Derbyshire hills for a spot of training.
They're just about to--
--catch a train to Buxton,--
--where they will stay until the match. So goodbye and-,- good luck !
