

A ROYAL ROMANCE.

PRINCE SIGVARD WEDS.
FATHER'S OPPOSITION DEFIED.

-London-

Picture. :- "All the world loves a lover". This truism--
 --accounts for the huge crowd which greets Prince Sigvard of Sweden and Fraulein Erika Patzeh--
 --on their arrival at Caxton Hall Registry Office--
 --Westminster, where they are to marry. This love match--
 --is one of the most romantic stories--
 --of recent times. To follow the dictates of his heart-- --the Prince has forfeited his royal rights. He-- --might have succeeded to a throne and kingship. But his affection for charming Erika Patzeh was stronger than his desire to be a King. So His Royal Highness--
 --and his wife are now plain Mr. and Mrs. Bernadotte.

(Perhaps I ought not to say plain), as Erika is a screen beauty, and her husband a film director. Hundreds of letters and telegrams have arrived from all over the world congratulating the couple. One was from Prince Lennart,--
 --the bridegroom's cousin, who also married-- --a commoner a few years ago. It is stated that-- --no communication was received from any member of the Swedish royal family, but for all that there is--
 --surely no one who will be ungenerous enough -
 --not to wish the couple a long and happy married life,
