

CROSS-COUNTRY CHAMPIONSHIPS.

BRITISH NATIONAL AT HIMLEY PARK.

SCOTTISH WOMEN AT AUCHINAIRN.

Picture.:- Himley Park, Staffordshire sees a merry little party of two-hundred-and-seventy-two--

--runners start on the National Cross-Country Championship of ten miles. Ten miles, without a single stop at a 'fill--

--up here' sign. The Harriers rush up and down all sorts of hills and dales, and have to--

--cross everything but their fingers. The winners are the Birchfield Harriers, and S. Dodd, of Wirrall Athletic Club, takes the individual championship.

While in Bishopbriggs, Scotland, flanneled girls wait to get--

--off the mark for the Scottish Women's Cross-Country Championship. These lithe lassies of--

--the Lowlands will go to any length to secure the coveted--

--honour of being in the first team home. A quick rub--

--down before starting up. What a stampede ! It keeps them fit for battles in--

--the bargain basement. Some wonderful performances are put up--

--by these girls. There's one passing another, and meaning every stride --

--of it. At the post Miss--

--Mildred Storrان is welcomed as the winning woman hustler. She's the leading--

--flight of her victorious club. The Dundee Hawkhill Harriers. Bravo, Milly !
