

NEWS IN BRIEF.

2255041
2-255041
2-152071
2-255041

(1)

Picture.:- The great wake up of waiters ! Never have so many waiters in a hurry--

--been seen at one time. Each one carries a tray filled with glasses--

--or something. Round gardens, over boulders, and if any waiter waits he loses--

--his chance of winning the novel race. Up the main--

--street of Nasau, Bahamas, and home for the prize. A--

--chocolate cream pie, and he gets it !

(2)

Picture.:- Take a look at this ! It's a whale of a case ! No, it's the case of a whale ! Well, anyway, there's a whale inside it. Fifty-one tons of whale in one lump. It's just--

--cruising through Preston, out of Southend, bound for Morecambe as a summer exhibition attraction for visitors.

Fifty-one tons of very dead whale ought to attract anything from anywhere.

(3)

Picture. :- Internal political differences threaten the peace of Spain.

Many strikes are in progress, and have been followed by--

--serious rioting. Madrid mobs have attacked government--

--buildings and factories, and much damage is the result.

After difficulty the Police have gained the upper hand,--

--and the latest reports say that for the moment all is quiet again.

(4)

Picture.:- The pageantry of the first Levee of the season is spoilt by rain. His Majesty--

--the King in naval uniform drives along the Mall to--

--St. James's Palace. Traffic--

--goes on its normal business. It is the King's consideration for others which has--

--led His Majesty to curtail the procession and save--
--many people from damp discomfort.