HANDBALL!

UNDER FOOTBALL RULES.
HANDS INSTEAD OF FEET.

I wonder if there will ever be a Cup Final at Wembley for this game! The only name it has got is 'Handball'. However, that's just what it is. Hands are used instead of-- --feet. It's a foul if the ball is kicked. If anybody--

--kicks a player's hands, it's pretty foul, too. Bouncing the ball is used as-- --a kind of substitute for dribbling. The players develop great power in the wrists, arms, and especially the hands.

A slow-motion throw in shows you just how it is done.

I suppose the catch-phrase is 'I hand it--

--to you partner'. After a goal has been scored, a spot of dancing in slow-motion. Thank goodness we don't really do it like that!
